

Multilingualism: Empowering Individuals, Transforming Societies (MEITS)

PROGRAMME

The Emergence of Standard English in Multilingual Britain, c.1300-1800

Thursday 20 April 2017

Time	Programme	Venue
08:30 – 09:30	Registration	Social Space Faculty of English
09:30 – 10:00	Introduction and welcome Prof Wendy Ayres-Bennett Principal Investigator, MEITS Dr Laura Wright, Faculty of English	Room G-R 06/07 Faculty of English
10:00 – 11:00	Prof Wim Vandebussche University of Brussels "Studying the social history of standardization in multilingual settings: Problems, challenges and opportunities"	Room G-R 06/07 Faculty of English
11:00 – 11:30	Refreshments	Social Space Faculty of English
11:30 – 12:30	Prof Merja Stenroos University of Stavanger "In the vulgar tongue: Some thoughts on the 'vernacularisation' and 'standardisation' of administrative writing in late and post- medieval England"	Room G-R 06/07 Faculty of English
12:30 – 14:00	Lunch	Social Space Faculty of English

14:00 – 15:00	Dr Jacob Thaisen University of Oslo "Some remarks on the diffusion of letter shapes in late medieval England"	Room G-R 06/07 Faculty of English
15:00 – 16:00	Prof Juan Manuel Hernández Campoy University of Murcia "Playing with continental innovations in the incipient standard of post-multilingual England: Latin-based influences, prestige and social awareness in intra-speaker variation"	Room G-R 06/07 Faculty of English
16:00 – 16:30	Refreshments	Social Space Faculty of English
16:30 – 17:30	Prof Juan Camilo Conde Silvestre University of Murcia "Communities of practice and the rise of standard English: Evidence from private correspondence"	Room G-R 06/07 Faculty of English
17:30 – 18:00	Jesús Romero University of Málaga "The vernacularization of non-native items in Early English medical writing"	Room G-R 06/07 Faculty of English
18:00 – 18:30	Rosie Shute, University of Sheffield & Prof Anita Auer, University of Lausanne "Multilingual printing in Early Modern England"	Room G-R 06/07 Faculty of English
19:00	Conference dinner (for those who have pre-booked)	Murray Edwards College

Friday 21 April 2017

Time	Programme	Venue
09:00 – 09:15	Registration	Social Space Faculty of English
09:15 – 10:15	Dr Alpo Honkapohja University of Zurich "Abbreviations and standardisation: Latin to English and manuscript to print"	Room G-R 06/07 Faculty of English
10:15 – 11:15	Prof Anita Auer University of Lausanne "Multilingualism and urban literacies in Late Medieval England"	Room G-R 06/07 Faculty of English
11:15 – 11:45	Refreshments	Social Space Faculty of English
11:45 – 12:15	Dr Anna Havinga University of Aberdeen "The emergence of Scots in the Aberdeen Council Registers"	Room G-R 06/07 Faculty of English
12:15 – 12:45	Tamara García-Vidal University of Murcia "The Latin influence on ME and EModE periphrastic adjectives: A corpus and variationist-based study"	Room G-R 06/07 Faculty of English
12:45 – 14:00	Lunch	Social Space Faculty of English
14:00 – 14:30	Round Table	Room G-R 06/07 Faculty of English